ATLANTIC 10 CONFERENCE BASKETBALL

GREAT PEOPLE. GREAT PLACES. EXTRAORDINARY OPPORTUNITIES.

The 13 member institutions of the Atlantic 10 are tradition-rich basketball programs. Through their history, they have combined for 197 appearances in the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament. Those appearances have resulted in:

- ▶ 1 National Champion
- ▶ 4 National Runners Up
- ▶ 13 Final Four Appearances
- ▶ 29 Elite Eight Appearances
- ▶ 55 Sweet 16 Appearances

The A-10 membership has also sent 204 teams to the National Invitational Tournament. Those appearances have resulted in:

- ▶ 10 National Titles
- ▶ 16 Runners Up
- ▶ 44 Semifinalists

Those strong traditions have continued into recent years. Since the 2007-08 season, the Atlantic 10 has sent 46 teams to the postseason, including a record nine teams last year. There have been 21 appearances in the NCAA Tournament by A-10 teams in that six-year timeframe, 15 of which have come via at-large bids. The Atlantic 10 has sent a team to the Sweet 16 in each of the last six years and seven of the current members made the postseason in 2012-13.

ABOUT THE ATLANTIC 10

On March 2, 1975, the idea of what is now the Atlantic 10 Conference was conceived. What started as an eight-school, men's basketball-only affiliation has grown into a 13-university, 21-sport league that is universally hailed as one of the best conferences in the country.

That growth and prominence is a direct result of the ideals and commitments of the member institutions of the Atlantic 10 – The University of Dayton, Duquesne University, Fordham University, George Mason University, The George Washington University, La Salle University, University of Massachusetts, University of Rhode Island, University of Richmond, St. Bonaventure University, Saint Joseph's University, Saint Louis University and Virginia Commonwealth University. The league will add one more to its ranks in 2014 when Davidson College becomes the 14th institution to join the A-10.

In 2012-13, the Atlantic 10 continued to be proactive in navigating sweeping conference realignment, adding George Mason University for 2013 and Davidson College in 2014. The additions follow a very successful first year by Virginia Commonwealth University, which began full membership on July 1, 2012. The league continues to draw national praise for its decisions during conference realignment in selecting institutions driven by academics and basketball. The league was deemed the "winner" of conference realignment in 2011-12. The three additions were part of a five-year Strategic Initiative Plan that was adopted during the 2010-11 academic year.

The 13 member institutions of the A-10 are united and strengthened by their diversity. Each is extraordinary in its educational mission, whether of a Catholic faith, a private university or a land grant institution. The varied pursuits of each member prove that there are many threads that weave the fabric for a great conference.

The Atlantic 10 Conference, with a total population of over 82 million people within its geographic footprint of seven states and the District of Columbia, will crown champions in 21 sports this year: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, field hockey, men's golf, women's lacrosse, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track & field, women's rowing, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's and women's tennis, and women's volleyball.

The presidents and chancellors of Atlantic 10 institutions, in conjunction with Atlantic 10 Commissioner Bernadette V. McGlade, have made a strong commitment to making the academic and athletics equation a successful one. Over the years, the league membership has strived to better recognize the academic accomplishments of its student-athletes. The Commissioner's Honor Roll, which cites every Atlantic 10 student-athlete with a 3.5 grade point average or better, recognized a record 3,255 student-athletes in 2012-13.

The league sponsors Academic All-Conference teams in each of its sports and honors two student-athletes as the A-10 Student-Athletes of the Year. Moreover, the Atlantic 10 provides four postgraduate scholarship grants to qualified student-athletes. In 2012-13, nearly 200 student-athletes earned Academic All-Conference recognition, while Saint Louis' Alejandro (Alex) Aleman, Shane Basen of Charlotte, Nicole Cherek of Duquesne and Sadie Wonders from Dayton were named Postgraduate Scholarship recipients. The Postgraduate Scholarship program has been so successful that the Atlantic 10's Directors of Athletics recently voted to more than double the number of recipients to 10 individuals and increase the value each recipient receives to $7,000. The program will expand beginning with the 2014 honorees.

The Atlantic 10 Conference once again earned high marks in the latest Academic Progress Rates (APR). This includes ranking fifth among all 32 Division I Conferences with a 984 average, 10 points above the national average. The Atlantic 10 had 49 teams rated with perfect scores, up from 40 last year, and there were 106 teams with a score of 990 or better. In total, there were 184 conference teams with APR scores at or above the national average, representing 76 percent of all A-10 teams. Of the 21 championship sponsored sports in the Atlantic 10, 19 had a sport average at or above the national average. There were 54 A-10 programs that earned national APR public recognition for scores ranked in the top 10 percent of their respective sports in APR scores and the league ranked fourth among all Division I conferences in number of teams publically recognized by the NCAA.

The Atlantic 10 boasted a second-place ranking in the single-year Graduation Success Rate (GSR) among all Division I leagues that was released in the Fall of 2012. Measured in a six-year window, 90 percent of freshman enrolling in an A-10 institution in 2005 graduated. Twelve of the league's institutions were above the national four-year GSR average of 80 percent and four of those programs, Dayton, George Washington, Richmond and Saint Joseph's were all over 90 percent. The Atlantic 10 also rates in the Top 10 in men's basketball, women's basketball and baseball in the single-year GSR. The league is ninth nationally in men's basketball, graduating at a 74 percent rate, nearly 7 percent above the national average. In women's basketball the league ranks sixth with an incredible 96 percent graduation rate for its 2004 freshman class, 10 percent higher than the national average. In baseball, the A-10 is tied for third nationally with an 87 percent GSR, also 10 percent higher than the national average.

2012-13 REVIEW

BASEBALL

Saint Louis used three home runs to power its way to the 2013 Atlantic 10 Baseball Championship with a 7-4 victory over Charlotte. It is the third A-10 title for Saint Louis (2006, 2010 & 2013) and the Billikens earned the A-10's automatic bid to the 2013 NCAA Division I Baseball Championship. SLU, which dropped its opening game of the championship to Xavier on Thursday, won four games over the course of 24 hours to take the title. Saint Louis becomes the first teams since XU's 2009 squad to win the championship out of the consolation bracket. SLU's Alex Kelly was named the Championship's Most Outstanding Player after setting records for hits with 12 and RBI with 13. The Billikens as a team hit seven homeruns during the week, which ties a championship record, while their 92 hits in seven games is a championship best. Saint Louis played in the Columbia Regional where it lost host South Carolina and were knocked out of the tournament with a loss to Clemson.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

In what was a historic season for the Atlantic 10 Conference, Saint Louis won its first A-10 title with a 62-56 win over league newcomer VCU in the first championship played in Barclays Center. The Billikens, who lost former coach Rick Majerus in December, were one of a record nine teams selected for the postseason, including five selections (VCU, Temple, Saint Louis, La Salle and Butler) into the NCAA Tournament. La Salle, which played in the opening round in Dayton beat Boise State to start a 6-0 streak for the A-10 that resulted in every team advancing to the third round. La Salle then picked up one more win and advanced to the Sweet 16, the sixth straight year the Atlantic 10 had a team in the Sweet 16. Charlotte, UMass and Saint Joseph's all earned NIT bids and Richmond played in the CBI. The historic year saw seven different teams earn poll votes or get ranked, 10 teams in the Top 100 of the RPI and 16 wins over ranked opponents.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Natasha Cloud scored 15 points to help Saint Joseph's rally to beat Fordham, 47-46, and win the Atlantic 10 Women's Basketball Championship, earning the Hawks their first trip to the NCAA tournament since 2000. This was the first year that the women, along with the men, played at Barclays Center. In the past the women played their tournament on four consecutive days in Philadelphia. Now these two teams had a six-day break to prepare for the final. The game was played in front of an A-10 Women's Basketball Championship record crowd of 4,436 fans. Seven Atlantic 10 Women's Basketball teams earned postseason berths. Dayton and Saint Joseph's represented the Atlantic 10 in the 2013 NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Tournament. Butler, Charlotte, Duquesne, Fordham and Richmond were also selected to take part in the 2013 WNIT. UD defeated St. John's in the first-round of the NCAA Tournament. The 96-90 win was the first double overtime game in the NCAA tournament since 2000 when Vanderbilt outlasted Kansas in the opening round. Charlotte and Fordham each advanced to the third round of the WNIT.

CROSS COUNTRY

Butler University captured both the men's and women's titles at the 2012 Atlantic 10 Cross Country Championships. The Butler women, led by junior individual winner Katie Clark, captured the championship with 37 points. Clark won the race with a time of 16:55.9. The Bulldog men also captured the league's championship with 38 points. Temple's Travis Mahoney was the individual winner with a time of 25:16.5. Butler coach Matt Roe was honored as both the men's and women's Coach of the Year.

FIELD HOCKEY

Massachusetts upset defending A-10 champion Richmond, 5-0, to claim their 13th A-10 Field Hockey title at UMass' Garber Field. The Minutewomen defeated Temple, 5-2, to advance to the final. Massachusetts earned its 23rd NCAA Tournament appearance with a 2-1 overtime victory over Rider in the NCAA Play-in. The Minutewomen fell in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, 4-2, to No. 5 ranked Syracuse.

GOLF

Charlotte captured its Atlantic 10 record seventh golf championship at Heron Bay Golf Club in Coral Springs, Florida. The 49ers also claimed the Atlantic 10's automatic bid to the NCAA Men's Golf Regionals. Menard and his teammates combined to shoot 278-285-281-844 to defeat second-place VCU by eight strokes. Temple finished third with a three day total of 861, while Xavier was fourth with a 291-287-285—863. The 49ers were led by individual medalist

ABOUT THE ATLANTIC 10

Raoul Menard who shot nine under par to win his second consecutive conference crown. Just a sophomore, Menard shot a 67-71-69—207, while becoming the eighth player in A-10 history to win two career league championships. Charlotte represented the A-10 at the NCAA Columbus Regional along with Xavier's Korey Ward who earned an individual bid. Richmond's Daniel Walker earned an at-large individual bid and finished second at the Tallahassee Regional that qualified him for the National Championship Tournament in Atlanta where he finished 93rd in a field of 156 players.

LACROSSE

Massachusetts had one of the best seasons in Atlantic 10 history, posting a perfect A-10 record (7-0) and earning rankings as high as eighth in the media poll and 12th in the coaches poll. The Minutewomen defeated Duquesne, 14-7 in the Atlantic 10 Championship game, to clinch their fifth consecutive A-10 title, and sixth overall. UMass, behind the potent offensive attack of two-time Atlantic 10 Player of the Year Katie Ferris, earned the league's first-ever automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament. UMass defeated No. 18/19 UConn, 14-10 for Minutewomen's first NCAA Tournament win since 1984. No. 7 ranked Penn State eliminated UMass from the NCAA Tournament Second Round with a 12-9 decision at the PSU Lacrosse Field.

ROWING

Rhode Island rowing won its second straight Atlantic 10 Rowing Championship, scoring 49 total team points at the regatta, which was run Saturday at the Cooper River. The Rams clinch the A-10's first-ever automatic bid to the NCAA Championship after winning the Varsity 4 race and finishing second in both the Varsity 8 and Second Varsity 8. Massachusetts finished second with 45 points and George Washington was third with 44 points. George Washington coach Eric Carcich was named Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year for the second straight year. GW won the Varsity 8 final and UMass claimed the Second Varsity 8, creating a close finish in team scoring. Just three points separated fourth through sixth, with Duquesne placing fourth with 32 points, Temple fifth with 31 and Dayton sixth with 30. Saint Joseph's (18), Fordham (12) and La Salle (80) rounded out the finish. Temple claimed the Varsity 8 Petite and Fordham took the Second Varsity 8 Petite. Fordham also captured the Varsity 4 Petite and UMass won the Varsity 4 B. Duquesne took the Novice 8 Final and the Novice 4 Final. The Minutewomen wrapped up the day with a win in the Pair Final.

MEN'S SOCCER

Kingsley Bryce registered his third game-winning goal of the 2012 Atlantic 10 Conference Men's Soccer Championship to pace #2 Saint Louis to a 3-0 victory over #4 VCU and claim the program's second Conference crown, at Charlotte's Transamerica Field. For his efforts, Bryce was named the event's Most Outstanding Performer. Saint Louis earned the Conference's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament, while VCU, Charlotte and Xavier garnered at-large bids, marking an A-10 record four teams in the 48 team field. Atlantic 10 men's soccer teams dominated the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Division I Men All-Mid-Atlantic Region team, claiming 24 of the 33 spots across the three teams. Charlotte had a league-leading five All-Region selections on the three teams, followed by VCU (4), La Salle (3), Saint Louis (3), Xavier (3), Duquesne (2), Temple (2), Fordham (1) and Butler (1). Saint Louis University head men's soccer coach Mike McGinty was tabbed the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Middle Atlantic Coach of the Year.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

In an overtime thriller against A-10 newcomer VCU, top-seed La Salle Explorers found the back of the net off a header from junior Renee Washington to defeat the Rams 2-1 in the Championship finale. The Explorers, who are unbeaten in regular-season conference play dating back to the fall of 2010, earned their second consecutive NCAA appearance under the leadership of two-time A-10 Coach of the Year, Paul Royal. The second-seeded Dayton Flyers, hoping to clinch a fourth conference championship, fell short against VCU in a double-overtime loss that was decided by penalty kicks. The Explorers season ended with a 4-1 loss to the nationally-ranked Cavaliers of Virginia in the first round.

SOFTBALL

Fordham needed two games and had to hold off a late rally, but the Rams captured their second Atlantic 10 Softball Championship, defeating Saint Joseph's, 6-5, in the second championship game at Massachusetts' Sortino Field. Top-seeded SJU (37-10-1) won the first championship game on Saturday morning, 7-1, to force the second game. Second-seeded Fordham, who also won the title in 2011, earned the league's automatic bid to the 2013 NCAA Tournament on Saturday in a slugfest, as home runs propelled both teams to wins. Fordham hit three homers in game two, a solo shot by Elise Fortier in the first, a two-run blast by the Championship's Most Outstanding Player Paige Ortiz in the second inning and a Kayla Lombardo homer in the third that also plated two runs. Fordham was selected for the Norman Regional and opened the 2013 NCAA Softball Championship against Arkansas. Despite an A-10 single season record-breaking home run from Fortier in the top of the first inning to take an early lead, the Rams fell 5-1, in the first game of the Regional. The Rams would then go on to defeat Marist, 5-3, before falling to the Razorbacks for a second time and thus ending their season with a record 36-23 (15-7).

SWIMMING & DIVING

The University of Richmond women captured the 2013 Atlantic 10 Women's Swimming & Diving Championship. The victory marked the third consecutive A-10 championship for the Spiders, and their 11th in the last 12 years. The Spiders finished with a total of 737 points, and were followed by second place finisher Massachusetts with 594 points. Richmond's Mali Kobelja and Kelley Yang were named the Most Outstanding Performer and the Most Outstanding Rookie, respectively. Richmond's Matt Barany was also honored as A-10 Coach of the Year.

The St. Bonaventure University men's squad won the 2013 Atlantic 10 Men's Swimming & Diving Championship and earned its first championship since the 2005-06 season. The Bonnies finished with 688 points. Runner-up and six-time defending champion Massachusetts finished with 613 points. SBU's Vatslav Lets, Mike Murphy and Viacheslav Shchukin were named the Most Outstanding Performer, Most Outstanding Diver and the Most Outstanding Rookie, respectively. St. Bonaventure's Sean McNamee and Stephanie O'Callaghan were honored as the Coach of the Year and Diving Coach of the Year, respectively.

TENNIS

The VCU Rams earned their first A-10 conference championship title with a dominant run in the Women's Tennis Championship, completing a 4-0 sweep of each of their opponents en route to an A-10 title and their 14th NCAA appearance. The Rams, led by Atlantic 10 Player of the Year Cindy Chala, carried a 13-match winning streak into their first round match against Tennessee, when they were handed a 4-0 loss, their first since February 24. On the men's side, in a nearly five-hour marathon finale that was forced indoors by weather, George Washington faced top-seed VCU for the title. GW, who trailed 3-1 in singles play, battled back to tie the match, forcing the deciding doubles round. The Rams secured the 4-3 victory and the A-10's automatic berth to their 20th NCAA appearance under Paul Kostin, who earned his 100th career victory. VCU dropped a 4-3 heartbreaker to Minnesota in the first round of NCAA play.

INDOOR TRACK & FIELD

Charlotte overcame a day one deficit to capture the 2013 Atlantic 10 Conference Men's Indoor Track & Field Championship. The 49ers, led by four A-10 record breaking performances, finished with 190.5 points to lead the way. The 49ers finished in first place in eight events, while also taking the top three spots in the 60m dash. Leading the 49ers was senior Cordell Livingston, who was named the Most Outstanding Field Performer. Livingston finished first in the 60m hurdles (7.95) and long jump (7.44m). Runner-up Rhode Island finished with 166 points. Rounding out the standings was Saint Joseph's (78), Butler (68), La Salle (60), Fordham (58), VCU (52), Temple (34), Massachusetts (28.5), Xavier (21), Saint Louis (15), and Richmond (9). Charlotte's Chris Tate was voted the Most Outstanding Rookie Performer, while Robert Olesen was named the Coach of the Year.

Charlotte successfully defended its title as it claimed the 2013 A-10 Women's Indoor Track & Field Championship. Charlotte finished with 142.5 points, placing first in five events. Leading the 49ers was sophomore Joann Blakney, who was also named Most Outstanding Performer of the championship. Blakney placed first in the 60m (7.47) and 200m (24.35), as well as the long jump (5.98m). Second-place Rhode Island finished with 89 points, followed by VCU in third with 86.5 points. Rounding out the standings was Dayton (76), Richmond (72), Duquesne (60), Saint Louis (55), Temple (52), Butler (39), Fordham (32), La Salle (24), Massachusetts (22.5), Saint Joseph's (15), and Xavier (12.5). Charlotte's Alvonna Blakney was named the Most Outstanding Rookie and Robert Olesen was honored as the Coach of the Year.

OUTDOOR TRACK & FIELD

The University of Rhode Island captured the 2013 A-10 Outdoor Track & Field Championship. The victory marked the Rams' second championship in the last three years and ninth overall. The Rams finished with 198 points and were led by strong performances on day two by first-place finishes from Mark Castilietti, Tyler Oliveira and Trent Baltzell. Castilietti won both the 110-meter hurdles (14.15) and the 400-meter hurdles (53.44). Crossing the line in 21.08, Oliveira was victorious in the 200-meters, while Baltzell won the Decathlon with 7,015 points. Defending champion Charlotte finished in second with 175 points. Charlotte's Anthony Campbell was named the Most Outstanding Male Rookie Performer. Campbell set a new meet record in the triple jump with a leap of 49'09.25. Senior Jake Deaton was named the Most Outstanding Male Performer following his wins in the shot put (57'08.25) and discus (181'03). Rhode Island and Charlotte were followed by Butler (70), Temple (67), VCU (63), Saint Joseph's (62), La Salle (51), Fordham (51), Massachusetts (37), Duquesne (34), Xavier (31), Saint Louis (9) and Richmond (6). La Salle's Alfredo Santana was named the Men's Most Outstanding Track Performer following individual victories in both the 5,000 meters (14:25.19) and the 10,000 meters (29:58.69). Rhode Island head coach John Copeland was named the Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year. Copeland has won the award seven times in Outdoor Track.

Charlotte women's track and field team successfully defended its title and earned its seventh Atlantic 10 Outdoor title at the 2013 Atlantic 10 Women's Outdoor Track & Field Championship. The women's team finished with a team score of 120.5. Charlotte picked up individual victories in the 100-meter Hurdles by Juanita Leto (13.93) and the 800-meters by Maraya Slatter (2:09.90) along with second-place finishes in the 100-meter Hurdles and the 400-meters. In second was Rhode Island with a team score of 98. Rounding out the standings were Duquesne and VCU with 97 points, followed by Dayton (88), Temple (68), Massachusetts (67), Saint Louis (64.5), Richmond (50), Butler (45), La Salle (30), Fordham (13), Xavier (10) and Saint Joseph's (10). VCU's Kiara Porter was named the A-10's Most Outstanding Track Performer after recording first-place finishes in the 200-meters (24.07) and the 400-meters (53.61). Porter was also a member of the 4x100 relay and the 4x400 relay teams that recorded victories. Brittney Edwards of Duquesne was named the Most Outstanding Field Performer after placing first in the Long Jump (5.95 meters) and second in the Triple Jump (12.44 meters). Olivia Pratt of Butler earned Rookie of the Year with a fourth-place finish in the 5,000 meters (17:04.14) and a first-place finish in the 10,000 meters with a time of 35:32.20. Charlotte's Robert Olesen picked up Coach of the Year honors.

VOLLEYBALL

Dayton cruised through the volleyball regular season with a perfect 14-0 conference record. The top-seeded Flyers beat No. 2 Xavier 3-2 (26-28, 19-25, 25-16, 25-14, 15-7) in the Atlantic 10 Volleyball Championship finals at Duquesne. Xavier took a 2-0 lead early in the thrilling match before Dayton took sets three and four to force the decisive fifth set. The Flyers captured their fourth consecutive A-10 title, and eighth overall. This was the third straight year and fifth time overall that Dayton and Xavier met in the A-10 Championship finals. UD again overcame a 2-0 deficit to take a 3-2 win over Pepperdine in the opening round of the 2012 NCAA Division I Championships (15-25, 20-25, 25-21, 25-21, 15-9). The Flyers then came up just short in their second round match with Oregon falling to the No.5-seeded Ducks, 3-0 (15-25, 20-25, 21-25). Dayton senior Rachel Krabacher was named the Atlantic 10 Player of the Year while her teammate, senior Samantha Selsky was named Setter of the Year. Dayton Coach Kelly Sheffield was named Coach of the Year. All three award winners are repeats, as each won their respective awards in 2011 as well. Temple's Chelsea Tupola was named Libero of the Year and Martina Samadan of VCU took home Rookie of the Year honors. of the University of Dayton. The Championship crown marks the seventh for the Flyers in the last nine years, who also have collected at least a share of the regular season title in seven of the last eight years. Dayton received its fifth-straight bid to compete in the NCAA Volleyball Championship as well, earning the league's automatic berth for the third consecutive season. In the first round of the NCAA Tournament, Dayton fell in a heartbreaker to No. 16 Kentucky (20-25, 25-16, 25-22, 15-25, 14-16).

COMMISSIONER BERNADETTE V. McGLADE

One of the most well-respected and experienced leaders in Division I athletics, Bernadette V. McGlade enters her sixth year as the Atlantic 10 Commissioner. Her progressive guidance has led the league to new opportunities while promoting the excellence and integrity of the A-10 within intercollegiate athletics.

Named the fifth full-time commissioner of the A-10 on June 2, 2008, McGlade in unison with the Council of Presidents and directors of athletics began working to shape the image and branding of the league and further position the A-10 as one of the top 10 Division I conferences in the country. McGlade quickly embraced the pride and commitment of each institution, and enthusiastically announced in March 2009, that the finals of the Men's Basketball Championship would be aired nationally on CBS on Selection Sunday for the first time in league history, beginning in 2010. She worked to strengthen an already close relationship with the conference television partners, CBS College Sports and ESPN. Then in 2012 McGlade forged a new media rights package that enhanced those existing partnerships and added NBC Sports Network as a third television partner. The result is a significant increase in television exposure for A-10 teams on a yearly basis.

McGlade led the conference through the development of a five-year Strategic Initiative Plan that was adopted by the Presidents' Council in November of 2010. Highlighting four areas of emphasis: Conference Membership, Student-Athlete Experience, Competitive Operating Standards and Conference Revenue Resources and Distribution, the conference has a clear road map for the future supported by the mission of the A-10.

The media declared the A-10 the "winner" of the conference realignment shuffle when McGlade brought recent Final Four participants George Mason and VCU into the league. Her efforts also will bring in Davidson in 2014, resulting in a 14-team league that is unparalleled in its basketball-centric ideals.

McGlade spearheaded a partnership agreement for the men's basketball championship, negotiating a five-year agreement to hold the championship at Barclays Center in Brooklyn, N.Y. Following the 2013 championship, the first in the newest NBA arena, the feedback from student-athletes, coaches, administrators, media and fans was overwhelmingly positive.

She further enhanced the value of the partnership with Barclays Center with a unique format for the women's basketball championship in which the championship final game was played at the arena following the men's semifinal round. That resulted in a championship finals record attendance of 4,436 fans and a total attendance of 14,282 fans for the entire women's basketball championship. That day also saw the induction of the Inaugural Atlantic 10 Basketball Legends Class, a McGlade initiative designed to recognize and honor the rich basketball tradition of the A-10 institutions.

The Conference has experienced tremendous success both on the playing field and in the classroom during McGlade's tenure as commissioner. She is driven by an unwavering commitment to uphold the league's traditions while striving to reach even greater heights for the more than 5,200 student-athletes who proudly compete under the A-10 banner...Great people. Great places. Extraordinary opportunities.

Well respected as an administrator throughout the NCAA, McGlade currently serves on the NCAA Men's Basketball Officiating LLC Board of Directors and the NCAA Honors Committee.

McGlade spent 11 years at the Atlantic Coast Conference prior to her arrival at the A-10, including the last nine as Associate Commissioner. Hired in 1997 as an Assistant Commissioner, McGlade stepped into the newly created position overseeing women's basketball. Her responsibilities included conference scheduling, the ACC Tournament, television oversight and selection, budget management and institutional liaison with the women's basketball coaches. Her oversight of marketing and development efforts with the ACC Women's Basketball Tournament resulted in capacity crowds and sellout events. She also formed a regional partnership with Breast Cancer research funding that raised over $250,000 in conjunction with the tournament. In addition, McGlade directed the officiating program for four Division I conferences, including recruitment, training and development of NCAA basketball officials, as well as developing and directing the South Atlantic Women's Basketball Officiating Alliance (SAWBO).

During her tenure at the ACC, McGlade worked with Olympic Sport Championships, Senior Woman Administrators and NCAA and ACC Committee oversight, including sportsmanship, officiating, equity, and television. She served on the NCAA Management Council, as well as the NCAA Task Force for Division I Women's Basketball. In addition, McGlade was part of the administrative team for ACC events including the ACC Men's Basketball Tournament, the Inaugural ACC Football Championship Game and numerous men's and women's NCAA Basketball events.

From 1995-2000, McGlade served on the NCAA Women's Basketball Selection Committee and chaired that Committee in 1999 and 2000. Additionally, McGlade served on the NCAA Working Group to Study Basketball Issues (1998-2000), as well as the NCAA Men's and Women's Basketball Marketing and Promotions Group (1997-1999). During that period, she also participated on the eight-person NCAA Television Negotiating Committee. This group secured, what was at the time, the largest television contract for any sporting event, totaling $6.2 billion in revenue from CBS for the NCAA men's basketball championship. Additionally, the group secured the current ESPN contract for the NCAA women's basketball championship and numerous additional National Championships' rights, in excess of $162 million.

Prior to arriving at the ACC, McGlade served for 17 years at Georgia Institute of Technology. She was hired at Georgia Tech in 1981, and at the age of 23 was one of the youngest Division I head women's basketball coaches in the nation and the first full-time female to coach at Georgia Tech. By 1983, McGlade assumed the responsibilities of coordinating women's sports at Georgia Tech where she was instrumental in the elevation of several sports to the varsity level and hiring a complement of coaches.

In 1985, McGlade was named Assistant Athletic Director for Olympic Sports, overseeing internal operations at Georgia Tech. In 1987, McGlade moved into full-time administration as Associate Athletic Director, assuming responsibility for all sports programs, including football and men's basketball, continued oversight of NCAA Compliance, the Bill Moore Tennis Center and the Total Person Program.

Throughout the 1990s, McGlade continued to expand her responsibilities and experience by serving as the Tournament Director for the 1993 NCAA Women's Final Four, which secured the first pre-sellout in the history of the event. Additionally, she served for a year and a half as the 1996 Olympic Games liaison for the Georgia Tech Athletic Association, developing and coordinating the Association's strategic plan. McGlade also served on strategically important NCAA and ACC committees such as the Committee on Women's Athletics, Television Negotiations Committee, Gender Equity Committee, NCAA Membership Subcommittee, Marketing Committee, Sportsmanship Committee, Officiating Committee and numerous sports committees.

In addition to her service, McGlade has acquired numerous honors throughout her career. In her senior year at the University of North Carolina, McGlade was inducted into the prestigious Order of the Valkyries, the highest honor for undergraduate women at the university. In 1987 she was named an Image Maker for the city of Atlanta and in 1993 she was recognized for the Excellence in Education Award for the development of an Atlanta (Ga.) Public School Outreach Program. In 1995, the University of North Carolina selected her as an Honored Jersey recipient where her playing jersey hangs in the rafters of Carmichael Auditorium.

In 2000, McGlade was recognized as the WBCA National Administrator of the Year, was inducted into the Georgia Tech Athletic Association Hall of Fame and the South Jersey Women's Basketball Hall of Fame. Two years later, in 2002, Georgia Tech honored McGlade as one of the 50 1st Women of the Institute.

McGlade was named to the ACC Women's Basketball 50th Anniversary Team and was inducted into the Camden County (N.J.) 2006 Regional Hall of Fame. In 2008, the YWCA of Greensboro,

N.C., presented her with the Kay Yow Outstanding Female in Sports award and she was a featured speaker at the NCAA Women's Final Four Leadership Forum. Most recently McGlade was named a 2012 ACC legend by Georgia Tech; she is the first person to be honored as an ACC legend as a player (UNC-2007) and coach (Georgia Tech-2012).

A native of Gloucester City, N.J., McGlade earned both her undergraduate and graduate degrees at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, N.C.

ATLANTIC 10 AWARDS & HONORS

POSTGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

Each year, the Faculty Athletic Representatives of the Atlantic 10's institutions honor four student-athletes who excel in academics and athletics as well as demonstrate an active involvement in their community. The recipients of the A-10 postgraduate award are required to use the scholarship on educational expenses during their pursuit of a postgraduate degree. The Postgraduate Scholarship program has been so successful that the Atlantic 10's Directors of Athletics recently voted to more than double the number of recipients to 10 individuals and increase the value each recipient receives to $7,000. The program will expand beginning with the 2014 honorees.

ATLANTIC 10 MEDIA SERVICES

A NOTE TO THE MEDIA

Atlantic 10 Conference Communications staff is ready to assist with any questions or requests related to coverage of A-10 basketball and the league's 13-member institutions during the 2013-14 season. Please do not hesitate to phone (757) 706-3058 or email – ddickerson@atlantic10.org.

WEEKLY ACCOLADES

The Atlantic 10 office will select a men's basketball Player and Rookie of the Week each Monday morning throughout the season. The weekly accolades, as well as notes and other pertinent information will be featured in the Gameday Basketball Notebook and the coaches' weekly teleconferences.

ON THE WEB

The Atlantic 10 updates www.Atlantic10.com daily with standings, statistics and notes pertaining to the 2013-14 basketball season. Media members are encouraged to utilize the website to supplement their coverage of the A-10.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Media credentials for all Atlantic 10 Championship events are available by contacting the league's communication department. Credential requests must be made online for the Men's Basketball Championship at Barclays Center in Brooklyn, N.Y. The links to request media credentials for the men's basketball championship will be sent via email to the media in mid-January and adherence to the reply deadline is strictly enforced. Credentials for regular season games are handled by the home athletic communications office at each Atlantic 10 member institution.

INTERVIEW POLICIES

Persons wishing to interview student-athletes and players outside of scheduled press conferences should contact the institution's media relations director. Interview requests for Atlantic 10 representatives, including the Commissioner and other administrative and executive staff should be directed through the A-10 communications department at 757-706-3058.

BASKETBALL COACHES TELECONFERENCE

The 13 A-10 head basketball coaches will be featured on media teleconferences during selected dates through the 2013-14 season. Each coach will discuss his team and answer questions from the media. Members of the media are strongly encouraged to participate in the questioning. To access the call, media must contact the Atlantic 10 Conference communications department to receive the appropriate information. The schedule of coaches will be set prior to the first teleconference.

CHAMPIONSHIP TIEBREAKER INFORMATION

The following tiebreaker format is utilized for determining the seeding in the Atlantic 10 Men's Basketball Championship:

Two-team Tie

- Head-to-head competition.
- Conference record of the tied teams based on winning percentage versus the highest common opponent and proceeding down to the lowest common opponent, if necessary, until one team gains an advantage.
 - All ties are broken in descending order.
 - When arriving at another pair of tied teams, use each team's record against the tied teams as a group. When comparing records against a group of teams, the higher winning percentage will prevail. In case of tied percentages vs. the team or group of 1.000 or .000, the following shall apply: 2-0 is better than 1-0; 0-1 is better than 0-2.
- Coin toss.

Three or more-team Tie

- Head-to-head competition.
 - Use each team's record against the tied teams as a group rather than performance against individual teams. When comparing records against a group of teams, the higher winning percentage will prevail. In case of tied percentages vs. the team or group of 1.000 or .000, the following shall apply: 2-0 is better than 1-0; 0-1 is better than 0-2.
- If the above results in two teams remaining, the two-team tiebreaker is used.
- If more than two teams still remain, use the Conference record of the tied teams based on winning percentage versus the highest common opponent and proceeding down to the lowest common opponent, if necessary, until one team gains an advantage.

- All ties are broken in descending order.
- When arriving at another pair of tied teams, use each team's record against the tied teams as a group. When comparing records against a group of teams, the higher winning percentage will prevail. In case of tied percentages vs. the team or group of 1.000 or .000, the following shall apply: 2-0 is better than 1-0; 0-1 is better than 0-2.

- Draw lots.

NOTE: All ties will be broken in descending order. When arriving at another pair of tied teams while comparing records, use each team's record against the tied teams as a group rather than the performance against individual teams. Once ties are broken, they remain broken throughout the tie-breaker process.

TEAM NOTES

- All but two players on the 2013-14 University of Dayton men's basketball roster will be Archie Miller recruits. One, senior forward Devin Oliver was UD's top rebounder (7.8) and fourth-leading scorer (8.9) last year. Oliver was fifth in the Atlantic 10 in rebounding and his 13 double-digit rebounding efforts were second in the A-10. The second, senior center Matt Kavanaugh, returns after missing all of the 2012-13 season due to a University suspension. Kavanaugh blossomed under Miller when Archie came to Dayton. After averaging 1.9 points and 2.3 rebounds a game, and shooting .451 (23-of-51) FG in 30 games as a sophomore, Kavanaugh upped those numbers to 9.0, 5.9, .546 (113-of-207) in 33 starts in 2011-12.
- Coach Archie Miller's two seasons at Dayton have seen some of the best single-season team shooting performances in UD history. In 2011-12, Dayton shot a school-record .778 free throw percentage (which was also 2nd in nation) and made the second-most 3-pointers in school history (257). Last year, the Flyers' overall field goal percentage was .475 (best mark at UD in 24 years) and their .384 3-point field goal percentage was the second-best in school history (.384). In conference play, Dayton led A-10 in field goal percentage (.489) and 3-point field goal percentage (.409).
- Miller graduated seniors Kevin Dillard and Josh Benson, and will look to replace them with five new faces. In addition to Kavanaugh's return, Ohio State transfer Jordan Sibert is now available after sitting out 2012-13. Sibert was a Top 40 player coming out of Cincinnati Princeton High School, and was caught in a logjam behind Jon Diebler and Will Buford. Scout.com ranks UD's three incoming freshmen -- Kyle Davis, Kendall Pollard and Dayshon "Scoochie" Smith -- the 39th-best class in the country, and the best in the A-10 in 2012-13. Davis and Pollard are two of the top high school players out of Chicago this year, while Smith is one of the top point guards out of New York City in the class of 2013. The signings of Davis and Smith give the Flyers their first two Top 125 recruits in the same class in school history.

- The rest of the team came to Dayton during "Miller Time," including senior Vee Sanford, who is the top returning scorer (12.3 ppg). The Flyer returnees also include a talented sophomore class of forwards Dyshawn Pierre and Jalen Robinson, point guard Khari Price and center Devon Scott who combined to average nearly 80 minutes a game. Pierre, Robinson and Scott all shot above 50 percent for the season, and Price shot 41 percent (16-39) from three. Pierre averaged 8.8 points and 5.1 rebounds, and took it higher in A-10 play (10.4, 6.1).

TEAM NOTES

- Second-year coach Jim Ferry will have eight new scholarship players on the 2013-14 roster, not including sophomore Drake transfer Micah Mason who will be sitting out. The suburban Pittsburgh native led the Missouri Valley Conference in 3-point shooting percentage (40-79, .508) in 30 games (11 starts) as a freshman.
- Only three scholarship players are back from last year's 8-22 team: senior Jerry Jones and sophomores Derrick Colter and Jeremiah Jones (walk ons Nick Foschia and Christian Johnston will also be back). The scholarship returnees have played in a combined 144 college games: Jerry Jones (84), Colter (30) and Jeremiah Jones (30). Senior first-year transfer Ovie Soko (88 games in three seasons at UAB) and first year JC transfer Dominique McKoy (30 games at Rhode Island in 2011-12) are the only other players on the roster with Division I experience.
- Jerry Jones is the lone holdover from former head coach Ron Everhart's recruiting classes.
- The Dukes will face teams from the ACC (Pitt), Big 12 (West Virginia) and Big Ten (Penn State) as well as additional traditional rivals Robert Morris and Saint Francis, Pa. in non-conference play.
- Derrick Colter became just the fifth player - and first underclassman - to lead the Dukes in scoring and assists when he averaged 13.4 ppg. and 5.3 apg. last season. The other four to accomplish the feat were seniors Aaron Jackson (19.3/5.7 in 2009), Bryant McAllister (19.7/4.8 in 2006), Courtney Wallace (16.6/3.4 in 2001) and Mike James (17.5/3.5 in 1998).
- DU will play George Mason (2013 CBI finalist), La Salle (2013 NCAA Sweet 16), Saint Louis (2013 NCAA Third Round) and St. Bonaventure twice in Atlantic 10 play. Mason, La Salle and SLU all won at least 22 games last season. Duquesne and George Washington are the only schools who will face two of the Atlantic 10's three returning 2013 NCAA tournament participants home-and-home.

Derrick Colter

TEAM NOTES

- Unlike last year, the Rams will benefit from some cooking in 2013-2014, playing 15 games in the friendly confines of the historic Rose Hill Gym (seven nonconference and eight conference). Last winter, Fordham played 20 of its 31 games away from the Rose Hill Gym (16 road games and four neutral site games), the most for any Atlantic 10 men's squad. Conversely, the eleven home games for the Rams were the fewest for any Atlantic 10 squad in 2012-2013 and the fewest for a Fordham squad since the 2005-2006 team also played eleven games at home.
- The 2013-14 Fordham men's basketball team will be a young group, with just three seniors (only one scholarship player), four juniors, six sophomores and six freshmen.
- Senior guard Branden Frazier became the 35th player in Fordham men's basketball history to hit the 1,000-point career scoring mark last year. Frazier currently has 1,077 career points, tied for 26th on the Fordham all-time scoring list.
- After a slow start to his collegiate career, guard Mandell Thomas started to display his offensive potential after being reinserted into the starting lineup at Georgia Tech on December 29. Over the final 16 games, Thomas averaged 13.5 ppg, shooting 42.0% (29-69) from three-point range, while also averaging 3.6 rpg. On the year, Thomas averaged 9.8 ppg, third best on the team, 13.9 ppg in Atlantic 10 action.
- Chances are someone who saw Fordham's Travion Leonard during his prep school days at Lee Academy in Lee, Maine, wouldn't recognize him today. While playing at Lee in 2011-12, Leonard weighed as much as 350 pounds, which concerned most of the coaches who were recruiting him. After signing with Fordham, Leonard knew he would have to lose weight to become a factor in the Rams' lineup so when he arrived on campus in 2012, he immediately went to work on losing weight. The results have been nothing short of astounding as the forward dropped almost 90 pounds, dropping down to about 265 pounds.

TEAM NOTES

- Mason returns all five starters from last season's squad. Additionally, the Patriots welcomed two newcomers in transfer Julian Royal (who will sit out 2013-14 season with a redshirt) and freshman Marquise Moore as well as Jalen Jenkins who redshirted last season.
- Mason reached the finals of the CBI (College Basketball Invitational). The Patriots defeated College of Charleston, Houston and Western Michigan before meeting Santa Clara in the finals. Mason fell to Santa Clara in the Championship game.
- Redshirt senior Sherrod Wright finished the season with six 20+ point games in the last nine contests. Wright set a school record by starting each of the Patriots' 38 games last season. Wright garnered All-Conference Second Team and VaSID All-State University Division Second Team honors.
- Mason is 25-8 in the Patriot Center over the past two seasons. The Patriots own a 267-105 (.718) all-time record in the Patriot Center.
- Mason will take part in the eight-team field of the 2013 Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic in December. Mason is among a group of participants that includes Akron, Boise State, Iowa State, Oregon State, Saint Mary's, South Carolina and host University of Hawai'i. All but two of those schools qualified for the postseason last year, including four NCAA tournament teams.

TEAM NOTES

- GW returns all five starters, four of its top five scorers, and better than two-thirds of its points (68%), rebounds (75%), blocks (80%), steals (73%) and assists (71%) from last year's 13-17 team. The Colonials played 16 contests decided by single-digits last season, going 6-10 with close wins against postseason participants James Madison and Massachusetts and narrow losses to the likes of Kansas State, Rutgers, Temple, La Salle, Butler, Saint Louis and the Minutemen.
- The 2013-14 campaign will mark the 100th season in GW men's basketball history, and its home games at the Charles E. Smith Center will be played on one of the nation's most unique new courts which features images of The White House flanked by the United States Capitol and the Washington Monument.
- GW was one of only two teams in the nation (Army) to start at least four freshmen last season. Three of those freshmen (Patricio Garino, Kevin Larsen and Joe McDonald) were among the team's top-five scorers.
- Isaiah Armwood, who enters his final season of eligibility in 2013-14, had one of the best individual seasons for a GW player since Yinka Dare in the mid-1990's, recording the highest blocks (68) and rebounds (263) totals since Dare from 1992-94, while adding a team-high 11.9 points per game on 50.6 percent shooting. Armwood's 2.3 blocks and 8.8 rebounds per game ranked second in the A-10.
- Patricio Garino ranked fourth in the A-10 and set a new single-season rookie steals record with 68 in 2012-13, eclipsing Carl Elliott's previous mark of 60 set in 2003-04.

TEAM NOTES

- La Salle returns four starters and 75% of its scoring from a team that went 24-10 and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 last winter, finishing with a #24 national ranking by the USA Today.
- The Explorers are 25-5 at Gola Arena over the past two years.
- Dr. John Giannini has 143 wins and needs three more to pass National Basketball Hall of Fame coach Ken Loeffler (1949-55) to move into second all-time at La Salle behind Speedy Morris (238 wins, 1986-01). The long-tenured coach is also first among active Atlantic 10 head coaches with 440 career victories.
- Tyreek Duren, a second team All-Atlantic 10 selection last season, is ninth all-time at La Salle in assists (392) and steals (176). He is also 28th with 1,259 points at La Salle. Duren needs eight assists to become one of four Explorers to have dished 400 assists and scored at least 1,250 points. (Doug Overton, Paul Burke and Donnie Carr).
- Sam Mills is fourth all-time in La Salle history in three-point shooting (.408).
- Jerrell Wright shot 22-for-27 (81.4%) in the NCAA Tournament last year, the best percentage of any player ever to play at least three games and average four field goals per game. He averaged 14.5 ppg. and 5.8 rpg. in four contests for the Explorers.
- Tyrone Garland upped his scoring average to 14.8 ppg., including the game-winning "SouthWest Philly Floater" to beat Ole Miss to advance to the Sweet 16.
- La Salle was 23-0 last season when tied or leading with five minutes left.

TEAM NOTES

- Three starters, 7 lettermen return from 21-win squad: UMass welcomes back three starters, including seven of its top nine scorers and its top five rebounders from last season's team that went 21-12, qualified for the NIT and reached A-10 Tournament semifinals for the second-consecutive year. Led by All-America candidate Chaz Williams at the point guard spot, the Minutemen will look to continue their up-tempo offensive style and full-court pressure defense in head coach Derek Kellogg's (85-77) sixth year at his alma mater.
- Some experts are thinking this could be the year UMass makes a return to the NCAA Tournament, after being a bubble squad most of last season. The Minutemen have made eight all-time NCAA Tourney appearances, including seven-straight from 1992-1998, but just five NIT's over the past 13 campaigns.
- UMass has posted back-to-back 20-plus win seasons and is looking to notch its third-consecutive for the first time since John Calipari put together six-in-a-row from 1992-96.
- Attendance On The Rise: Over the past two seasons, UMass' home attendance at the Mullins Center has risen 55 percent.
- The Minutemen averaged 5,492 in 13 regular-season dates last season, including 6,002 over eight A-10 contests (2 games suffered low numbers due to snowstorms). A season-high 9,341 watched the Butler game, marking the largest non-sellout in the 20-year history of the facility.
- UMass To Participate In Charleston Classic: UMass was selected to participate in the 2013 Charleston Classic, set for Nov. 21-24 at TD Arena in Charleston, S.C. Joining UMass in the field are UAB, Clemson, Davidson, Georgia, New Mexico, Nebraska and long-time A-10 rival Temple.

TEAM NOTES

- Head coach Dan Hurley named senior Xavier Munford and junior transfer Gilvydas Biruta team captains for the 2013-14 campaign. Munford - a 6-2 guard - is the top returning scorer in the Atlantic 10, averaging 17.4 points per game a season ago. Biruta - a 6-8 forward - was a two-year starter at Rutgers, averaging 9.7 points and 5.3 rebounds as a sophomore. Both student-athletes played for Hurley at St. Benedict's Prep in Newark, N.J. Hurley on Munford: "His leadership this year is an important as his play." Hurley on Biruta: "He sets a great example on and off the court for us."
- Rhode Island welcomes a quartet of newcomers to the court for the 2013-14 season - Gilvydas Biruta, Biggie Minnis, Jarelle Reischel, and Ifeanyi Onyekaba. The four student-athletes were eligible to practice but not compete last season. Three players - Biruta (Rutgers), Minnis (Texas Tech), and Reischel (Rice) are Division I transfers. Onyekaba sat out last season as an NCAA year-in-residence. Minnis, Reischel and Onyekaba will have three years of eligibility remaining, while Biruta will have two. CBSSports.com's Jon Rothstein ranks Biruta as one of his top 25 impact transfers for 2013-14.
- Rhode Island took a 10-day trip to Italy, from August 2-12, playing three games along the way. The Rams began in Rome, before visiting San Marino, Venice, and Como - visiting the many sights and landmarks along the way. The teams were made up of professionals from the Italian SerieA and B level clubs. On Aug. 6 in Pesaro, Italy, Rhody earned a 92-87 against the Indiana Pesce All-Stars. Xavier Munford led all scorers with 27 points, connecting on 5-of-8 from 3-point land. Jarelle Reischel added 11 points and Hassan Martin 10. URI took a 91-79 victory over the Vicenza All-

Stars on Aug. 8. Gilvydas Biruta registered a double-double with 21 points and 12 boards. Ifeanyi Onyekaba and Biggie Minnis each added 10 points. In its final game of the trip on Aug. 11, Jordan Hare poured in 27 points and E.C. Matthews added 22 as URI downed Varese, 112-89.

TEAM NOTES

- The Spiders return 8 of top 10 scorers return, including 3 players that averaged double-figures in 2012-13. The Spiders return 70 percent of their scoring and 80 percent of their rebounding.
- 2012 Atlantic 10 Rookie of the Year Kendall Anthony will be a junior in 2013-14, after averaging 11.5 points per game last season. Anthony has made 128 three-pointers in two seasons, which already has him 23 three-pointers from cracking Richmond's career top-10 list. He is currently third on Richmond's career list for three-point percentage, shooting .421 from behind the arc.
- Four of Richmond's five frontcourt players this past season where freshmen and each showed they can be impact players this season. Terry Allen, who was the Texas 5A State Player of the Year as a senior in high school, averaged 9.0 points and 6.5 rebounds per game in the final 9 games of the season. Alonzo Nelson-Ododa, who chose Richmond over NC State, blocked 62 shots, which ranked 6th on Richmond's single-season list. Deion Taylor, the Metro New Orleans Player of the Year as a senior in high school, scored a career-high 13 points in a win over Charlotte and had 11 points in the win over nationally ranked VCU.
- Just three of Richmond's losses in 2012-13 came to teams outside the top-100 in the RPI. Richmond had four top-100 RPI wins, including a win over nationally ranked VCU. Of Richmond's 15 losses in 2012-13, 10 came by 10 points or less.
- The Spiders have the most wins of any current Atlantic 10 member over the last 6 seasons (59), two wins ahead of Saint Louis (57). The Spiders have won 8 of the last 14 games against ranked teams and 9 of their last 17 vs. ranked teams.

TEAM NOTES

- Bona tied a single-season program record with four Atlantic 10 road wins in 2012-13, something it had done five previous times, but not once since the 1999-2000 season.
- The Bonnies finished sixth in the nation in free-throw shooting (76.3 percent), and led the A-10 by nearly three percent (La Salle, 73.7 percent). That marks the third time in head coach Mark Schmidt's six seasons that SBU finished in the top-3 of the league in that category. The Bonnies were 3rd in 2011-12 (76.1 percent) and 1st in 2007-08 (75.2 percent).
- 11 of St. Bonaventure's first 13 A-10 games were decided by 10 points or less, and 12 of the 16 on the year were decided by that margin. Only one other time in program history had 11 of SBU's first 13 A-10 games been decided by 10 points or less, and that came in 1982-83. Five other games were decided by four points or less, and SBU went 1-4 in those games, including consecutive three-point overtime losses to La Salle and Richmond.
- St. Bonaventure ran its record to a dominant 44-2 in home openers in the Reilly Center in 2012-13. In fact, in games which have served as both home and season openers, the Bonnies have never lost in the RC, going an emphatic 33-0 in such contests.
- The Bonnies had a lot of international flavor contributing last year as it was one of only four teams in the nation which started four foreign players in a game. Nearly 44 percent of SBU's scoring last year (923 of 2,109) came from international players. All but one of those players returns in 2013-14, and the team also adds Netherlands native Matthias Runs to the roster (sat out 2012-13 due to the NCAA's "delayed enrollment" ruling).

TEAM NOTES

- Hawks return four players who held starting roles last season - Langston Galloway, Ronald Roberts, Jr., Chris Wilson and Halil Kanacevic. Galloway and Roberts are the only two players to have started all 32 games for the team. Galloway is the team's leading returning scorer after notching 13.8 ppg last season while Roberts topped the team in rebounding with 8.3 per game. Wilson made 23 starts and led the team in assists with 3.5 per game while averaging 6.5 points. Kanacevic, who played in 26 games with 14 starts, averaged 8.5 points and 7.2 rebounds.
- Last year's squad went 18-14 and earned an NIT bid, which was the second consecutive and the 11th under Phil Martelli in his 18 years.
- Saint Joseph's embarked on a four-game tour of Italy in August (11-21) and travelled to Rome, Florence, Venice and Como. It was the second time Phil Martelli took the Hawks to Italy, with the last coming in the summer of 1999.
- The Hawks will participate in the 2013 Old Spice Classic in Orlando, Fla. (Nov. 28, 29 & Dec. 1), joining Butler, LSU, Memphis, Oklahoma State, Purdue, Siena and Washington State in the field. Saint Joseph's will open play in the tournament against LSU on Thanksgiving night at 8:30 p.m. The tournament will be televised on the ESPN network.
- This is Phil Martelli's 19th season at the helm of the Hawks. He owns a 338-237 career record and owns the school mark for career victories. He is currently serving as the president of the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC).
- Halil Kanacevic has changed his uniform number this year to 45 (from 21) in memory of his uncle, Rizo Popovic, who passed away during the 2012-13 season at the age of 45.

TEAM NOTES

- After leading Saint Louis to unprecedented success as interim head coach, Saint Louis University named Jim Crews head coach following the 2012-13 campaign. Crews was tabbed interim head coach in August 2012 after it was announced Rick Majerus would not coach that year due to an ongoing heart ailment. Majerus later died in December.
- Among SLU's eight returnees in 2013-14 are five seniors, and all are expected to see substantial minutes for the Billikens. All together, the five are responsible for 3,438 career points. The quartet of Dwayne Evans, Jordair Jett, Rob Loe and Mike McCall Jr., who have all played integral roles since their freshman season in 2010-11, may go down as the winningest class in school history. The Billikens need 24 wins to better the four-year span when Cody Ellis and Cory Remekun were part of teams that accumulated 89 wins in a consecutive four-year stretch.
- The Billikens captured an outright regular season conference title for the first time since the 1956-57 squad won the Missouri Valley Conference. The last time the Billikens earned at least a share of a conference regular season title was in 1970-71, when SLU tied for first in the Missouri Valley Conference.
- Saint Louis set a school record with 28 victories in 2013-14. The Billikens' 26 wins in 2011-12 were tied for the second-most in school history, one off the then-school record of 27 victories achieved by the 1988-89 Billikens.
- Saint Louis had six players finish with 7.0 ppg or more. SLU's scoring was so spread out, that no Billiken finished in the top 10 in scoring in the A-10. In A-10 games only, no Billiken appeared in the top 10 despite ranking seventh in the league in scoring offense. SLU's leading scorer, Dwayne Evans (14.0 ppg), was 15th in the A-10 in scoring.

TEAM NOTES

- VCU is on a streak of 35 straight sellouts at the Siegel Center. That ranks as the fifth-longest active streak in the country (behind Duke, Kansas, Michigan State and Gonzaga).
- Because of their trademark HAVOC defense, the Rams have had back-to-back years leading the nation in steals per game (11.7 in 2012-13, 10.6 in 2011-12). VCU has had 803 total steals over the past two seasons is the most in the country. VCU had 422 steals last year, setting a school record, and breaking the Atlantic 10's record for team steals previously held by the 1997-98 Xavier squad that racked up 352 thefts. The Rams have also had back-to-back years leading the nation in turnover margin (+8.0 in 2012-13, +6.5 in 2011-12). VCU's turnover margin of +8.03 not only was the top mark in the nation, but also was the sixth-highest mark ever recorded in Division I history.
- One of only seven schools with at least one NCAA Tournament win in each of the past three seasons (Florida, Gonzaga, Kansas, Marquette, North Carolina, Ohio State and Syracuse). And with 111 wins over the past four years, VCU is tied for sixth-most victories by any program over that stretch. Only Kansas, Duke, Kentucky, Ohio State and Syracuse have more. The 111 wins over the past four seasons is the most over any four-year stretch in VCU history. In addition, the Rams are one of just three programs in the country to win 24 or more games in each of the past seven seasons. Kansas and Memphis are the others.
- Coach Shaka Smart's 111 wins over his first four seasons is the second most by any NCAA Division I head coach through his first four years. Prior to the arrival of Coach Smart and his staff, VCU had eclipsed 100,000 in total attendance just twice in its history. The Rams have now done that in three of the past four seasons.

2012-13 SEASON IN REVIEW

HOW SWEET IT IS - SIX TIMES

La Salle's win over Ole Miss in the 2013 NCAA Tournament advanced the Explorers to the Sweet 16. It marks the sixth consecutive year the A-10 has had a team advance to the Sweet 16.

VOTED IN

VCU will begin the year ranked in both major men's basketball polls. The Rams were ranked No. 15 in the USA Today Coaches' Preseason Poll, and No. 14 in the AP Preseason Poll. It marks the first time in school history the Rams begin a season ranked. Both polls also have two other Atlantic 10 teams, Saint Louis and La Salle, receiving votes. Both teams played in the NCAA Tournament last season and were ranked at the end of the year in the Coaches' Poll.

POLLING PLACE

There were five A-10 teams receiving votes in the Coaches' Poll at the end of the season. Saint Louis finished at No. 16 in the final poll while VCU and La Salle were ranked 23rd and 24th. Butler was the first team not ranked, receiving 76 votes. Temple also received votes in the final Coaches' Poll. In addition, the A-10 had two other teams that received votes this year: Saint Joseph's and Xavier.

TOP 100

The A-10 finished the 2012-13 season with 10 teams in the top 100 of the RPI which is the second most of any league behind the old Big East (11).

HISTORIC BIDS

For the sixth year in a row, the Atlantic 10 Conference earned at least three bids into the 2013 NCAA Tournament while it marked the 28th time in the league's 35-year history that the conference received multiple bids to participate in the national tournament. The A-10 also received multiple at-large bids for the sixth year in a row and 19th time overall.

WINNING THE DAY(S)

The Atlantic 10 had all five of its teams that qualified for the NCAA Tournament win their Second Round (Round of 64) game. La Salle won its First Four game to advance to the second round, setting up a record five teams in the Round of 32, breaking the old record, set in 1992-93. That year, George Washington, Rhode Island, Massachusetts and Temple all advanced to the Round of 32. The Explorers' first four win coupled with the five Second Round wins gave the A-10 a 6-0 record to start the tournament. Only the Big 10 had more wins in the Round of 64 (6-1) and the A-10 was the only league to advance all of its teams from the Second Round to the Third Round.

FIRST FOUR AND BEYOND

La Salle, who has advanced to the Sweet 16 from the First Four (annually hosted by A-10 member Dayton), is the only A-10 team to have played in the First Four while a member of the league. La Salle and current A-10 member VCU are the only two teams to advance from the First Four to the Sweet 16.

INAUGURAL LEGENDS CLASS CELEBRATION

March 16, 2013 | Barclays Center | 40/40 Club

The Atlantic 10 has a rich history in men's and women's basketball. To celebrate that history the conference held the Inaugural Legends Celebration in conjunction with the 2013 Men's Basketball Championship on March 16, prior to the men's semifinals. The invitation-only brunch honored the 32 legends, each select by his or her institution.

POSTSEASON RECORDS

The Atlantic 10 placed a record nine teams in postseason play and tied a record with five teams in the NCAA Tournament. The nine teams was the second most in the country. Saint Louis, VCU, Temple, La Salle and Butler all earned a spot in the NCAA Tournament. Massachusetts, Charlotte and Saint Joseph's are NIT bound and Richmond has accepted a CBI bid. The nine teams breaks the old mark of eight postseason berths set three times, including last season. Only the old Big East (10) had more teams playing in the postseason than the A-10. The Big 10 was equal with nine teams in the fields.

ON THE AIR

In October of 2012, the Atlantic 10 Conference secured eight-year partnerships with ESPN, CBS Sports Network and NBC Sports Group for its media and television rights. The agreements more than double the men's and women's basketball national exposure for the A-10 membership and will begin this season (2013-14). The new agreements give the league unprecedented reach, distribution and marketing, allowing the Atlantic 10 to better serve its fans in its extensive media footprint. The agreements provide over 192 total basketball exposures, including 146 men's basketball appearances. This includes coverage of the quarterfinals, semifinals and finals of the men's and women's basketball championships.

WELCOME TO THE A-10

The Atlantic 10 expanded its roster for the 2013-14 season by adding George Mason University on July 1, 2013. A strong basketball program historically, Mason went to the Final Four in 2006. The Patriots have made a total of six NCAA Tournament appearances, three of which have come in the last seven years. That includes the 2006 Final Four run. Mason was in the CBI last year, the fourth postseason appearance for the school in the past six years. The Patriots advanced to the finals, losing two of three to Santa Clara. Davidson will join the A-10 on July 1, 2014 and begin competition in the 2014-15 academic year. Davidson has made 11 appearances in the NCAA Tournament, including five since 2002. The Wildcats, behind long-time coach Bob McKillop and All-American sharpshooter Stephen Curry, made a run to the 2008 Elite Eight.

In addition to the representation of the Conference in the NBA, the Atlantic 10 has also seen two of its basketball alumni go on to careers in the National Football League. Three-time All-Conference pick Sam Clancy, who played hoops at Pittsburgh from 1978-81, had an 11-year NFL career (1983-1993) with the Seattle Seahawks, Cleveland Browns, and Indianapolis Colts. James Harris, a member of the 1989 Temple basketball squad, has played from 1993-98 with the Minnesota Vikings, St. Louis Rams, and Oakland Raiders.
