ABOUT THE ATLANTIC 10

On March 2, 1975, the idea of what is now the Atlantic 10 Conference was conceived. What started as an eight-school, men's basketball-only affiliation has grown into a 13-university, 21-sport league that is universally hailed as one of the best conferences in the country.

That growth and prominence is a direct result of the ideals and commitments of the member institutions of the Atlantic 10 – The University of Dayton, Duquesne University, Fordham University, George Mason University, The George Washington University, La Salle University, University of Massachusetts, University of Rhode Island, University of Richmond, St. Bonaventure University, Saint Joseph's University, Saint Louis University and Virginia Commonwealth University. The league will add one more to its ranks in 2014 when Davidson College becomes the 14th institution to join the A-10.

In 2012-13, the Atlantic 10 continued to be proactive in navigating sweeping conference realignment, adding George Mason University for 2013 and Davidson College in 2014. The additions follow a very successful first year by Virginia Commonwealth University, which began full membership on July 1, 2012. The league continues to draw national praise for its decisions during conference realignment in selecting institutions driven by academics and basketball. The league was deemed the "winner" of conference realignment in 2011-12. The three additions were part of a five-year Strategic Initiative Plan that was adopted during the 2010-11 academic year.

The 13 member institutions of the A-10 are united and strengthened by their diversity. Each is extraordinary in its educational mission, whether of a Catholic faith, a private university or a land grant institution. The varied pursuits of each member prove that there are many threads that weave the fabric for a great conference.

The Atlantic 10 Conference, with a total population of over 82 million people within its geographic footprint of seven states and the District of Columbia, will crown champions in 21 sports this year: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, field hockey, men's golf, women's lacrosse, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track & field, women's rowing, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's and women's tennis, and women's volleyball.

The presidents and chancellors of Atlantic 10 institutions, in conjunction with Atlantic 10 Commissioner Bernadette V. McGlade, have made a strong commitment to making the academic and athletics equation a successful one. Over the years, the league membership has strived to better recognize the academic accomplishments of its student-athletes. The Commissioner's Honor Roll, which cites every Atlantic 10 student-athlete with a 3.5 grade point average or better, recognized a record 3,255 student-athletes in 2012-13.

ABOUT THE ATLANTIC 10

The league sponsors Academic All-Conference teams in each of its sports and honors two student-athletes as the A-10 Student-Athletes of the Year. Moreover, the Atlantic 10 provides four postgraduate scholarship grants to qualified student-athletes. In 2012-13, nearly 200 student-athletes earned Academic All-Conference recognition, while Saint Louis' Alejandro (Alex) Aleman, Shane Basen of Charlotte, Nicole Cherok of Duquesne and Sadie Wonders from Dayton were named Postgraduate Scholarship recipients. The Postgraduate Scholarship program has been so successful that the Atlantic 10's Directors of Athletics recently voted to more than double the number of recipients to 10 individuals and increase the value each recipient receives to $7,000. The program will expand beginning with the 2014 honorees.

The Atlantic 10 Conference once again earned high marks in the latest Academic Progress Rates (APR). This includes ranking fifth among all 32 Division I Conferences with a 984 average, 10 points above the national average. The Atlantic 10 had 49 teams rated with perfect scores, up from 40 last year, and there were 106 teams with a score of 990 or better. In total, there were 184 conference teams with APR scores at or above the national average, representing 76 percent of all A-10 teams. Of the 21 championship sponsored sports in the Atlantic 10, 19 had a sport average at or above the national average. There were 54 A-10 programs that earned national APR public recognition for scores ranked in the top 10 percent of their respective sports in APR scores and the league ranked fourth among all Division I conferences in number of teams publically recognized by the NCAA.

The Atlantic 10 boasted a second-place ranking in the single-year Graduation Success Rate (GSR) among all Division I leagues that was released in the Fall of 2012. Measured in a six-year window, 90 percent of freshman enrolling in an A-10 institution in 2005 graduated. Twelve of the league's institutions were above the national four-year GSR average of 80 percent and four of those programs, Dayton, George Washington, Richmond and Saint Joseph's were all over 90 percent. The Atlantic 10 also rates in the Top 10 in men's basketball, women's basketball and baseball in the single-year GSR. The league is ninth nationally in men's basketball, graduating at a 74 percent rate, nearly 7 percent above the national average. In women's basketball the league ranks sixth with an incredible 96 percent graduation rate for its 2004 freshman class, 10 percent higher than the national average. In baseball, the A-10 is tied for third nationally with an 87 percent GSR, also 10 percent higher than the national average.

2012-13 REVIEW

BASEBALL

Saint Louis used three home runs to power its way to the 2013 Atlantic 10 Baseball Championship with a 7-4 victory over Charlotte. It is the third A-10 title for Saint Louis (2006, 2010 & 2013) and the Billikens earned the A-10's automatic bid to the 2013 NCAA Division I Baseball Championship. SLU, which dropped its opening game of the championship to Xavier on Thursday, won four games over the course of 24 hours to take the title. Saint Louis becomes the first teams since XU's 2009 squad to win the championship out of the consolation bracket. SLU's Alex Kelly was named the Championship's Most Outstanding Player after setting records for hits with 12 and RBI with 13. The Billikens as a team hit seven home runs during the week, which ties a championship record, while their 92 hits in seven games is a championship best. Saint Louis played in the Columbia Regional where it lost host South Carolina and were knocked out of the tournament with a loss to Clemson.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

In what was a historic season for the Atlantic 10 Conference, Saint Louis won its first A-10 title with a 62-56 win over league newcomer VCU in the first championship played in Barclays Center. The Billikens, who lost former coach Rick Majerus in December, were one of a record nine teams selected for the postseason, including five selections (VCU, Temple, Saint Louis, La Salle and Butler) into the NCAA Tournament. La Salle, which played in the opening round in Dayton beat Boise State to start a 6-0 streak for the A-10 that resulted in every team advancing to the third round. La Salle then picked up one more win and advanced to the Sweet 16, the sixth straight year the Atlantic 10 had a team in the Sweet 16. Charlotte, UMass and Saint Joseph's all earned NIT bids and Richmond played in the CBI. The historic year saw seven different teams earn poll votes or get ranked, 10 teams in the Top 100 of the RPI and 16 wins over ranked opponents.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Natasha Cloud scored 15 points to help Saint Joseph's rally to beat Fordham, 47-46, and win the Atlantic 10 Women's Basketball Championship, earning the Hawks their first trip to the NCAA tournament since 2000. This was the first year that the women, along with the men, played at Barclays Center. In the past the women played their tournament on four consecutive days in Philadelphia. Now these two teams had a six-day break to prepare for the final. The game was played in front of an A-10 Women's Basketball Championship record crowd of 4,436 fans. Seven Atlantic 10 Women's Basketball teams earned postseason berths. Dayton and Saint Joseph's represented the Atlantic 10 in the 2013 NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Tournament. Butler, Charlotte, Duquesne, Fordham and Richmond were also selected to take part in the 2013 WNIT. UD defeated St. John's in the first-round of the NCAA Tournament. The 96-90 win was the first double overtime game in the NCAA tournament since 2000 when Vanderbilt outlasted Kansas in the opening round. Charlotte and Fordham each advanced to the third round of the WNIT.

CROSS COUNTRY

Butler University captured both the men's and women's titles at the 2012 Atlantic 10 Cross Country Championships. The Butler women, led by junior individual winner Katie Clark, captured the championship with 37 points. Clark won the race with a time of 16:55.9. The Bulldog men also captured the league's championship with 38 points. Temple's Travis Mahoney was the individual winner with a time of 25:16.5. Massachusetts earned its 23rd NCAA Tournament appearance with a 2-1 overtime victory over Rider in the NCAA Play-in. The Minutewomen fell in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, 4-2, to No. 5 ranked Syracuse.

GOLF

Charlotte captured its Atlantic 10 record seventh golf championship at Heron Bay Golf Club in Coral Springs, Florida. The 49ers also claimed the Atlantic 10's automatic bid to the NCAA Men's Golf Regionals. Menard and his teammates combined to shoot 278-285-281-844 to defeat second-place VCU by eight strokes. Temple finished third with a three day total of 861, while Xavier was fourth with a 291-287-285—863. The 49ers were led by individual medalist Raoul Menard who shot nine under par to win his second consecutive conference crown. Just a sophomore, Menard shot a 67-71-69—207, while becoming the eighth player in A-10 history to win two career league championships. Charlotte represented the A-10 at the NCAA Columbus Regional along with Xavier's Korey Ward who earned an individual bid. Richmond's Daniel Walker earned an at-large individual bid and finished second at the Tallahassee Regional that qualified him for the National Championship Tournament in Atlanta where he finished 93rd in a field of 156 players.

LACROSSE

Massachusetts had one of the best seasons in Atlantic 10 history, posting a perfect A-10 record (7-0) and earning rankings as high as eighth in the media poll and 12th in the coaches poll. The Minutewomen defeated Duquesne, 14-7 in the Atlantic 10 Championship game, to clinch their fifth consecutive A-10 title, and sixth overall. UMass, behind the potent offensive attack of two-time Atlantic 10 Player of the Year Katie Ferris, earned the league's first-ever automatic berth to the NCAA Tournament. UMass defeated No. 18/19 UConn, 14-10 for Minutewomen's first NCAA Tournament win since 1984. No. 7 ranked Penn State eliminated UMass from the NCAA Tournament Second Round with a 12-9 decision at the PSU Lacrosse Field.

ROWING

Rhode Island rowing won its second straight Atlantic 10 Rowing Championship, scoring 49 total team points at the regatta, which was run Saturday at the Cooper River. The Rams clinch the A-10's first-ever automatic bid to the NCAA Championship after winning the Varsity 4 race and finishing second in both the Varsity 8 and Second Varsity 8. Massachusetts finished second with 45 points and George Washington was third with 44 points. George Washington coach Eric Carcich was named Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year for the second straight year. GW won the Varsity 8 final and UMass claimed the Second Varsity 8, creating a close finish in team scoring. Just three points separated fourth through sixth, with Duquesne placing fourth with 32 points, Temple fifth with 31 and Dayton sixth with 30. Saint Joseph's (18), Fordham (12) and La Salle (80 rounded out the finish. Temple claimed the Varsity 8 Petite and Fordham took the Second Varsity 8 Petite. Fordham also captured the Varsity 4 Petite and UMass won the Varsity 4 B. Duquesne took the Novice 8 Final and the Novice 4 Final. The Minutewomen wrapped up the day with a win in the Pair Final.

MEN'S SOCCER

Kingsley Bryce registered his third game-winning goal of the 2012 Atlantic 10 Conference Men's Soccer Championship to pace #2 Saint Louis to a 3-0 victory over #4 VCU and claim the program's second Conference crown, at Charlotte's Transamerica Field. For his efforts, Bryce was named the event's Most Outstanding Performer. Saint Louis earned the Conference's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament, while VCU, Charlotte and Xavier garnered at-large bids, marking an A-10 record four teams in the 48 team field. Atlantic 10 men's soccer teams dominated the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Division I Men All-Mid-Atlantic Region team, claiming 24 of the 33 spots across the three teams. Charlotte had a league-leading five All-Region selections on the three teams, followed by VCU (4), La Salle (3), Saint Louis (3), Xavier (3), Duquesne (2), Temple (2), Fordham (1) and Butler (1). Saint Louis University head men's soccer coach Mike McGinty was tabbed the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Middle Atlantic Coach of the Year.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

In an overtime thriller against A-10 newcomer VCU, top-seed La Salle Explorers found the back of the net off a header from junior Renee Washington to defeat the Rams 2-1 in the Championship finale. The Explorers, who are unbeaten in regular-season conference play dating back to the fall of 2010, earned their second consecutive NCAA appearance under the leadership of two-time A-10 Coach of the Year, Paul Royal. The second-seeded Dayton Flyers, hoping to clinch a fourth conference championship, fell short against VCU in a double-overtime loss that was decided by penalty kicks. The Explorers season ended with a 4-1 loss to the nationally-ranked Cavaliers of Virginia in the first round.

SOFTBALL

Fordham needed two games and had to hold off a late rally, but the Rams captured their second Atlantic 10 Softball Championship, defeating Saint Joseph's, 6-5, in the second championship game at Massachusetts' Sortino Field. Top-seeded SJU (37-10-1) won the first championship game on Saturday morning, 7-1, to force the second game. Second-seeded Fordham, who also won the title in 2011, earned the league's automatic bid to the 2013 NCAA Tournament on Saturday in a slugfest, as home runs propelled both teams to wins. Fordham hit three homers in game two, a solo shot by Elise Fortier in the first, a two-run blast by the Championship's Most Outstanding Player Paige Ortiz in the second inning and a Kayla Lombardo homer in the third that also plated two runs. Fordham was selected for the Norman Regional and opened the 2013 NCAA Softball Championship against Arkansas. Despite an A-10 single season record-breaking home run from Fortier in the top of the first inning to take an early lead, the Rams fell 5-1, in the first game of the Regional. The Rams would then go on to defeat Marist, 5-3, before falling to the Razorbacks for a second time and thus ending their season with a record 36-23 (15-7).

COMMISSIONER BERNADETTE V. McGLADE

One of the most well-respected and experienced leaders in Division I athletics, Bernadette V. McGlade enters her sixth year as the Atlantic 10 Commissioner. Her progressive guidance has led the league to new opportunities while promoting the excellence and integrity of the A-10 within intercollegiate athletics.

Named the fifth full-time commissioner of the A-10 on June 2, 2008, McGlade in unison with the Council of Presidents and directors of athletics began working to shape the image and branding of the league and further position the A-10 as one of the top 10 Division I conferences in the country. McGlade quickly embraced the pride and commitment of each institution, and enthusiastically announced in March 2009, that the finals of the Men's Basketball Championship would be aired nationally on CBS on Selection Sunday for the first time in league history, beginning in 2010. She worked to strengthen an already close relationship with the conference television partners, CBS College Sports and ESPN. Then in 2012 McGlade forged a new media rights package that enhanced those existing partnerships and added NBC Sports Network as a third television partner. The result is a significant increase in television exposure for A-10 teams on a yearly basis.

McGlade led the conference through the development of a five-year Strategic Initiative Plan that was adopted by the Presidents' Council in November of 2010. Highlighting four areas of emphasis: Conference Membership, Student-Athlete Experience, Competitive Operating Standards and Conference Revenue Resources and Distribution, the conference has a clear road map for the future supported by the mission of the A-10.

The media declared the A-10 the "winner" of the conference realignment shuffle when McGlade brought recent Final Four participants George Mason and VCU into the league. Her efforts also will bring in Davidson in 2014, resulting in a 14-team league that is unparalleled in its basketball-centric ideals.

McGlade spearheaded a partnership agreement for the men's basketball championship, negotiating a five-year agreement to hold the championship at Barclays Center in Brooklyn, N.Y. Following the 2013 championship, the first in the newest NBA arena, the feedback from student-athletes, coaches, administrators, media and fans was overwhelmingly positive.

She further enhanced the value of the partnership with Barclays Center with a unique format for the women's basketball championship in which the championship final game was played at the arena following the men's semifinal round. That resulted in a championship finals record attendance of 4,436 fans and a total attendance of 14,282 fans for the entire women's basketball championship. That day also saw the induction of the Inaugural Atlantic 10 Basketball Legends Class, a McGlade initiative designed to recognize and honor the rich basketball tradition of the A-10 institutions.

The Conference has experienced tremendous success both on the playing field and in the classroom during McGlade's tenure as commissioner. She is driven by an unwavering commitment to uphold the league's traditions while striving to reach even greater heights for the more than 5,200 student-athletes who proudly compete under the A-10 banner...Great people. Great places. Extraordinary opportunities.

Well respected as an administrator throughout the NCAA, McGlade currently serves on the NCAA Men's Basketball Officiating LLC Board of Directors and the NCAA Honors Committee.

McGlade spent 11 years at the Atlantic Coast Conference prior to her arrival at the A-10, including the last nine as Associate Commissioner. Hired in 1997 as an Assistant Commissioner, McGlade stepped into the newly created position overseeing women's basketball. Her responsibilities included conference scheduling, the ACC Tournament, television oversight and selection, budget management and institutional liaison with the women's basketball coaches. Her oversight of marketing and development efforts with the ACC Women's Basketball Tournament resulted in capacity crowds and sellout events. She also formed a regional partnership with Breast Cancer research funding that raised over $250,000 in conjunction with the tournament. In addition, McGlade directed the officiating program for four Division I conferences, including recruitment, training and development of NCAA basketball officials, as well as developing and directing the South Atlantic Women's Basketball Officiating Alliance (SAWBO).

During her tenure at the ACC, McGlade worked with Olympic Sport Championships, Senior Woman Administrators and NCAA and ACC Committee oversight, including sportsmanship, officiating, equity, and television. She served on the NCAA Management Council, as well as the NCAA Task Force for Division I Women's Basketball. In addition, McGlade was part of the administrative team for ACC events including the ACC Men's Basketball Tournament, the Inaugural ACC Football Championship Game and numerous men's and women's NCAA Basketball events.

From 1995-2000, McGlade served on the NCAA Women's Basketball Selection Committee and chaired that Committee in 1999 and 2000. Additionally, McGlade served on the NCAA Working Group to Study Basketball Issues (1998-2000), as well as the NCAA Men's and Women's Basketball Marketing and Promotions Group (1997-1999). During that period, she also participated on the eight-person NCAA Television Negotiating Committee. This group secured, what was at the time, the largest television contract for any sporting event, totaling $6.2 billion in revenue from CBS for the NCAA men's basketball championship. Additionally, the group secured the current ESPN contract for the NCAA women's basketball championship and numerous additional National Championships' rights, in excess of $162 million.

Prior to arriving at the ACC, McGlade served for 17 years at Georgia Institute of Technology. She was hired at Georgia Tech in 1981, and at the age of 23 was one of the youngest Division I head women's basketball coaches in the nation and the first full-time female to coach at Georgia Tech. By 1983, McGlade assumed the responsibilities of coordinating women's sports at Georgia Tech where she was instrumental in the elevation of several sports to the varsity level and hiring a complement of coaches.

In 1985, McGlade was named Assistant Athletic Director for Olympic Sports, overseeing internal operations at Georgia Tech. In 1987, McGlade moved into full-time administration as Associate Athletic Director, assuming responsibility for all sports programs, including football and men's basketball, continued oversight of NCAA Compliance, the Bill Moore Tennis Center and the Total Person Program.

Throughout the 1990s, McGlade continued to expand her responsibilities and experience by serving as the Tournament Director for the 1993 NCAA Women's Final Four, which secured the first pre-sellout in the history of the event. Additionally, she served for a year and a half as the 1996 Olympic Games liaison for the Georgia Tech Athletic Association, developing and coordinating the Association's strategic plan. McGlade also served on strategically important NCAA and ACC committees such as the Committee on Women's Athletics, Television Negotiations Committee, Gender Equity Committee, NCAA Membership Subcommittee, Marketing Committee, Sportsmanship Committee, Officiating Committee and numerous sports committees.

In addition to her service, McGlade has acquired numerous honors throughout her career. In her senior year at the University of North Carolina, McGlade was inducted into the prestigious Order of the Valkyries, the highest honor for undergraduate women at the university. In 1987 she was named an Image Maker for the city of Atlanta and in 1993 she was recognized for the Excellence in Education Award for the development of an Atlanta (Ga.) Public School Outreach Program. In 1995, the University of North Carolina selected her as an Honored Jersey recipient where her playing jersey hangs in the rafters of Carmichael Auditorium.

In 2000, McGlade was recognized as the WBCA National Administrator of the Year, was inducted into the Georgia Tech Athletic Association Hall of Fame and the South Jersey Women's Basketball Hall of Fame. Two years later, in 2002, Georgia Tech honored McGlade as one of the 50 1st Women of the Institute.

McGlade was named to the ACC Women's Basketball 50th Anniversary Team and was inducted into the Camden County (N.J.) 2006 Regional Hall of Fame. In 2008, the YWCA of Greensboro, N.C., presented her with the Kay Yow Outstanding Female in Sports award and she was a featured speaker at the NCAA Women's Final Four Leadership Forum. Most recently McGlade was named a 2012 ACC legend by Georgia Tech; she is the first person to be honored as an ACC legend as a player (UNC-2007) and coach (Georgia Tech-2012).

A native of Gloucester City, N.J., McGlade earned both her undergraduate and graduate degrees at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, N.C.

POSTGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

Each year, the Faculty Athletic Representatives of the Atlantic 10's institutions honor four student-athletes who excel in academics and athletics as well as demonstrate an active involvement in their community. The recipients of the A-10 postgraduate award are required to use the scholarship on educational expenses during their pursuit of a postgraduate degree. The Postgraduate Scholarship program has been so successful that the Atlantic 10's Directors of Athletics recently voted to more than double the number of recipients to 10 individuals and increase the value each recipient receives to $7,000. The program will expand beginning with the 2014 honorees.

2014 ATLANTIC 10 CHAMPIONSHIP

Richmond Coliseum

The Atlantic 10 Conference announced in September that it has entered a three-year partnership with the City of Richmond to bring the A-10 Women's Basketball Championship to the Richmond Coliseum beginning in 2014.

The 2014 13-team event will take place at the Richmond Coliseum March 5-9. The championship will open with a play-in game on Wednesday the fifth, followed by four first-round games on Thursday. The four quarterfinal games will tip-off Friday morning followed by the semifinal round on Saturday which will be televised live nationally on CBS Sports Network. The finals will air live on ESPNU beginning at 11:00 a.m. on Sunday.

When the championship tips off in Richmond, it will mark just the third time in its 32-year history that it will take place at a neutral site. Tsongas Arena in Lowell, Mass., played host in 2011, while Showplace Arena in Upper Marlboro, Md., served as host in 2010. The Atlantic 10 is one of only eight conferences (out of 31 league) where the women's basketball championship will be played at a neutral site, separate from the men's championship.

Under her direction, Saint Joseph's posted memorable wins over #5 Maryland and #11 Dayton, culminating with a 47-46 victory over Fordham in the A-10 title game at Barclays Center. With the Hawks appearance in the NCAA Tournament, Griffin joined an elite group of just eight people who have led their alma mater to the NCAA Tournament both as a player and a coach. She is also the first Saint Joseph's coach to be named Big 5 Coach of the Year.

DAYTON CAPTURES FIRST REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONSHIP; JABIR GETS WIN #400

Dayton earned the program's first regular season Atlantic 10 championship title with a perfect 14-0 conference record. They set the school-record for greatest number of wins in a season (28) since becoming a Division I program in 1986. Jim Jabir was named A-10 Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the Naismith National Coach of the Year after posting a career-high winning percentage (.903) with the sixth youngest team in the nation. Jabir earned his 400th win February 10th against Fordham. For 18 consecutive weeks the Flyers were named in the Associated Press Top 25 Poll and USA Today Coaches Poll. The Flyers peaked in both polls with a No. 11 ranking and ended the season as No. 18 in the AP Top 25 Poll and No. 15 in the Coaches poll.

DUQUESNE HAS RECORD SETTING SEASON

Duquesne tied a school record with 24 wins and had the best single-season winning percentage in program history at .750. Senior Jocelyn Floyd led the nation in steals and was named the A-10 Defensive Player of the Year and to the All-Defensive Team. Junior Wumi Agunbiade was named First-Team All-Conference and freshman April Robinson was named to the All-Rookie team.

GAITLEY LEADS FORDHAM TO HISTORIC SEASON; NOTCHES 500TH WIN

Following a 26-9 campaign that saw Fordham women's basketball have its most successful season in over three decades, a trio of Rams were honored at the 80th Annual Haggerty Awards Dinner hosted by the Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association.

Coach Stephanie Gaitley took home the Maggie Dixon Coach of the Year Award, presented to her for leading the Rams to new heights in only her second year at the helm. Gaitley led the Rams to a 26-9 record in 2012-2013, notching the second-highest win total in program history and the most since 1978-1979. She also secured her 500th career win with a victory over Temple in the A-10 Semifinals.

Gaitley's squad accomplished a laundry list of firsts this season, including the team's first winning record since 1994-1995, first 20-win season since 1993-1994, first postseason appearance since 1994 and first ever appearance in the A-10 Tournament semifinals and championship. The Rams' 12-2 record in conference more than doubled their previous high win total in the A-10 and their final RPI ranking of 60 set an all-time high water mark for the program.

CHARLOTTE'S HAILEY NAMED A-10 PLAYER OF THE YEAR AND ALL-AMERICAN

Charlotte's Jennifer Hailey, the Atlantic 10 Player of the Year, was named to the Fullcourt.com All-American Second Team. George Washington alum Jessica Adair

Cheryl Reeve will begin her fourth season as the Lynx head coach in 2013 after guiding the team to a second-consecutive WNBA Finals appearance and league-best 27-7 regular season record in 2012. Under Reeve's tutelage, the Lynx have won a WNBA-best 67 games dating back to the start of the 2010 season, including winning the first WNBA championship in franchise history in 2011 and making a return trip to the Finals in 2012.

In January of 2003, former Duquesne head coach and Penn State alum Suzie McConnell-Serio was named head coach of the WNBA's Minnesota Lynx. She took a team that finished 10-22 in the previous season to an 18-16 record and first-ever playoff appearance. One year later, she took a team picked to finish last in the Western Conference and made a return trip to the playoffs and in the process was named the 2004 WNBA Coach of the Year. The '04 Lynx, who earned a franchise-best No. 3 seed in the Western Conference, tied franchise records for wins (18), home victories (11) and road wins (7) all set in McConnell-Serio's first season.
